French Asked to Get Data on American

PARIS (AP) — The U.S. Embassy today asked France to get information on an Air Force jet pilot forced down in Communist Albania.

The pilot apparently is Maj. Howard J. B. Curran of Pratt, Kan., and Tacoma, Wash., who disappeared Dec. 23 in a T-33 jet trainer on a flight from Chateaufort, France, to Naples.

The United States has no diplomatic relations with the Soviet satellite on the Adriatic but France has a legation there. The French performed a similar mission for Britain when the Albanians forced down a British cargo plane with six persons aboard on New Year's Eve. The plane and the Britons were released Saturday.

A French Foreign Minister spokesman said so far the American Embassy had asked only for information on the jet-pilot and his plant not for the French to take action to secure his release. The Americans apparently were waiting for confirmation of his identity and to learn the circumstances of his downing.

Former Ozan Woman Dies of Injuries

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Mrs. Myrtle Mae Parlee Robins, 32, of Camden died yesterday at a Little Rock hospital of injuries suffered in a highway accident near Pine Bluff last Dec. 20.

Her son, Dr. R. B. Robins, 37, of Camden, was injured seriously in the accident and three other persons suffered minor injuries.

State Police reported that Dr. Robins' car brushed the rear of a station wagon driven by the Rev. Joseph Keher, pastor of St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church at Pine Bluff, and then collided with a car driven by Mrs. George Fallis, 19, of Pine Bluff.

Dr. Robins also was hospitalized at Little Rock with chest injuries and yesterday was removed to a Camden hospital. He is a former Democratic national committee man from Arkansas.

Mrs. Fallis, her mother and her sister were less seriously injured. Father Keher and a daughter of Mrs. Fallis escaped injury.

Mrs. Robins was a native of Coldwater, Miss. Her husband, Rufus B. Robins, died in 1925. Besides her son, she is survived by a brother, Dr. Norf G. Parlee of Camden.

Funeral services will be held at the First Methodist Church of Camden today. Burial will be at Ozan.

Blind Worker Now on a State Court

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — A former textile worker, blinded 30 years ago in an accident, was elected yesterday to the Rhode Island Supreme Court.

He is 50-year-old Ally Gen. William E. Powers.

His blindness shut him off from mill work and led him to study of law.

After 3½ years at Perkins Institute for the Blind, Waltham, Mass., he entered Boston University law school and was graduated second highest in his class in 1932.

He went on to serve five terms as a representative in the Rhode Island House before being elected attorney general in 1947.

Powers was named on a roll call vote by the Senate and House, sitting together to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Chief Justice Edmund W. Fitch.

Some Timely Tips on How to Become a Good Hermit

By HAL POYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Would you like to become a hermit?

Many people say they do, but don't know how to go about it.

Some of them are millionaires. They have found out the difference between millionaires and hermits, which is — millionaires have money, hermits have fun.

There is an amazing lack of knowledge about hermiting in America. For example, some people think hermits live in caves.

The so-called city hermit is merely a civilized misfit and often a miser, lonely in a lonely room. Your true hermit, on the other hand, is a woodland fellow, happy in solitude, not so much afraid of civilization as he is unwilling to be cramped by it.

He merely wants to admire nature and brood over the passing seasons, and he can't find time to do this if he has to worry over paying taxes, raising a family, and where to find a place to park his car.

Hermiting has its failures. There are any number of haphazard hermits who fail because they go about it in a slap-dash manner. They merely run away from home, sniver in the forest a few days or weeks, then, crestfallen, crawl meekly back to wife and job.

The successful hermit is the man who plans ahead. It is necessary, of course, for a hermit to live off the land. But this entails hard work, and if a man is going to work hard he might as well forget hermiting and become a millionaire.

I have talked to a number of career hermits, and they all emphasize the need of a small amount of capital and an income of at least $100 a year.

Here's one way to go about it. With a few hundred dollars you buy a few acres of waste land with an abandoned but habitable home on it. Then you get some woods for your garden, a shotgun for game, and a trustworthy dog. The dog should be one willing to chase rabbits, but even more willing to stop at any time to listen to you — and one who won't insist on your listening to him.

Avoid a yawning dog. Next is the problem of income. Instead of paying the government, make it pay you. Write the U.S. Department of Agriculture and threaten to plant your vast acres with wheat and flood the country unless you are included in the soil bank program in a big way. This should be good for at least $150 a year.

Another way is to form a company called "The Happy Hermit, Inc." with 1000 shareholders.

You know you are an inescapable prisoner of civilization, too covetous of civilization to covet.

Faubus to Announce Plans Politically Before April 30; Johnson Submits Amendments

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval Faubus says he will announce his political plans before the April 30 filing deadline "in fairness" to other potential gubernatorial candidates.

The governor said yesterday he still has not decided whether he will seek a third term.

"However, I don't think it would be fair for me to wait until the April 30 filing deadline," he said. "The decision should be made earlier than that and I fully expect to make it before then."

Faubus said his decision, "probably will be announced sooner than April 15."

Several persons who may seek the gubernatorial nomination in this summer's Democratic primaries reportedly are holding off public announcements until they hear Faubus' plans.

Faubus said he has no first-hand knowledge about reported plans for a renewal of large-scale gambling at Hot Springs.

But any such development would be a problem for local law enforcement officers, the governor said.

Faubus said he did not expect the state would be asked to intervene in the situation. If a formal request for such action is made, Faubus said, he will consider it on its merits.

There have been rumors that some casinos at Hot Springs plan to start operations soon. They have been closed for months.

On another subject, the governor said he made unannounced weekend tours of the Negro Boys Industrial School at Wrighsville and the white Girls Industrial School at Alexander and saw need for improvements.

He reported that physical facilities at the Negro school are run-down and farm land is going to waste through disuse.

Faubus said the girls' school has good facilities but is in bad shape financially because the 1957 Legislature trimmed its budget.

He said he planned to make unannounced visits to other state institutions.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Segregationist leader Jim Johnson of Crossett today proposed a wide-ranging constitutional amendment containing not only several anti-integration proposals but also covering a number of apparently unrelated matters.

These latter include a proposed further limitation on a governor's power to appoint Highway Commission members and a proposal for an automatic popular vote on all tax increases voted by the Legislature.

The five-page proposed amendment contains 11 sections.

Johnson's nomination for governor against Gov. Orval Faubus in the 1956 primaries. He was the sponsor of the most stringent of several anti-integration measures adopted by popular vote at the 1956 general election.

The Highway Commission provision in his new proposal would prevent any governor from appointing more than two members during his time of office.

If Faubus should run for and be elected to a third term, that would prevent him from appointing another commissioner. He already has appointed two. The holdover commissioner would continue in office until a new governor took over.

Johnson filed a copy of his proposed amendment with Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett today. The attorney general's office must approve the proposal's popular name and ballot title or substitute others.

The first section of the proposed amendment would give constitutional status to the anti-integration Sovereignty Commission created by the 1957 Legislature with the governor as its head.

Arkansas Car Insurers Want to Hike Rates

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas' toll of traffic accidents and deaths may bring a new increase in automobile insurance rates.

State Insurance Commissioner Harvey C. Combs said yesterday that his office has received requests for rate boosts in property and personal coverage.

A hearing on the requests is scheduled for next Tuesday.

Combs said that under the law he could not divulge information about the requests. Presumably they would come from the Mutual Rating Bureau or the National Bureau of Casualty Underwriters.

Combs' office said teen-aged drivers and other persons under 25 are involved in the biggest percentage of the state's traffic accidents. These age groups are expected to bear the brunt of any new increase in car insurance rates.

Arkansas tallied 493 traffic deaths in 1957 — a figure second only to the record of 593 in 1941.

Frank Potter, general manager of the Arkansas Automobile Assn., said a possible rate increase has been "in the wind" for some time.

But he said the AAA hopes the state will not rush into establishment of new rates. Potter pointed out that two increases affecting drivers were ordered last year. One involved private passenger cars and the other boosted rates on cars used for commercial purposes.

Superhighway Cost Is Jumped by $10 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Commerce Weeks reported to Congress today that the estimated cost of completing the nation's 41,000-mile superhighway network has jumped 10 billion dollars.

Nevertheless, he recommended that new appropriations for the states be based on the higher cost figures.

He estimated the interstate system of expressways linking all parts of the country would cost $37,623,000,000.

This compares with the $27,445,000,000 figure used when the superhighway law was passed 10 months ago.

In the report, the secretary also released a state-by-state breakdown estimating money required to complete each state's portion of the system.

The 1956 law provided that apportionment of federal funds to the states for the last 10 years of the program be based on the estimated cost of each state's portion. Washington pays 90 per cent of the cost of the interstate system.

The apportionments in the first three years of the program now under way were based on an old formula using chiefly population and current road mileage.

Weeks' report was released shortly before he was to appear before the Senate Public Roads subcommittee headed by Sen. Gore (D-Tenn.) to give a progress report on the interstate system.

The new estimates were worked out by the Bureau of Public Roads in cooperation with the various state highway departments.

The secretary said that even though the cost estimates were up 37 per cent, he would not now recommend any increased taxes to

Folly of Auto Speed Told to Kiwanians

The grisly story of Arkansas' awful toll of agony, death and destruction on the highways in which 493 persons were killed in 1957 was told to the Hope Kiwanis Club Tuesday by Sgt. Everett Eason of the Arkansas State Police.

Sgt. Eason, in describing the modern automobile, said it was a machine of near magic. It was built for pleasure and usefulness, and can go places in minutes which once took hours.

"But yet, in the blink of an eye, it can become a deadly killer. It can snuff out the life of a child, twist a smile into tears, it can wreck and cripple and destroy. It can deal out death like the plague."

He cited figures showing that the United States has six percent of the world's population, yet 70 percent of the world's automobile traffic, and then closed his talk by listing the ten top killers, as follows:

1. Speed. It's stupid and silly, he said, to manufacture 300 horsepower motors. 2. Failure to yield the right of way. 3. Driving on the wrong side of the road. 4. Alcohol. A human can sink no lower than getting behind the wheel while intoxicated, he said. 5. Following too close.

Improper signaling. Directional signals are now official in Arkansas. 7. Attitude. Drive courteously at all times. 8. Lapse of memory, the greatest cause of head-on collisions. 9. Fatigue. Stop and rest at least one time for every hundred miles. 10. Irritation, which he called the mad-driver, mad at himself and everybody else.

Politics is beginning to stir in Hempstead County and from the talk there is no shortage of candidates. Judge U. C. Garrett is the only one to make an official announcement, but plenty of others are talking. There is little doubt that Sheriff Jimmie Cook will seek another term and the report is that one of his opponents will be Ivy Mitchell.

Avoid Middlebrooks, the present County Clerk, is making no bones about running for sheriff candidate for county clerk and it's more than likely that Arthur Anderson, the present deputy clerk, will seek the head job there. In all probability Treasurer Harry Hawn and Assessor Robert Field Jr. will seek reelection. And we keep hearing that former Hope Mayor Ole Olsen is going to seek a seat in the State Senate, vacated by Prescott's Gene Lee who was one of several legislators to take

Ike's Message to Congress to Back Missile Request

By JACK BELL.
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower was described by a high government official today as ready to back his request for new missile and air defense funds with a hard-hitting message to Congress.

This official, who has sent advance drafts of the State of the Union address Eisenhower will deliver in person tomorrow, said, "This is not a message of ill-tudes or complacency." He asked not to be quoted by name.

"The President intends to tackle the major problems head-on," he said. "It will be a vigorous message that we believe will have the approval of most members of Congress."

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, who heads a senatorial inquiry into the missile and satellite programs applauded Eisenhower's action in asking $1,200,000,000 of additional money to expand and accelerate the nation's defenses.

Johnson said he hopes Eisenhower follows up the move with "a call to arms" in addressing Congress.

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
WASHINGTON (AP) — A White House request for $1,200,000,000 in new defense funds received top congressional priority today with indications of quick approval.

The House Defense Appropriations subcommittee called a closed door session to hear Secretary of Defense McElroy and his aides explain the need for the money.

President Eisenhower requested the hurry-up supplemental appropriation yesterday only a few hours after Congress had convened for its new session.

Chairman Mahon (D-Tex.) said he hoped to conclude the hearings within 10 days and have legislation ready for reconsideration by the House this month. The missile money bill is expected to be the first major legislation considered this year.

Mahon said in an interview, "It is my feeling that Congress will quickly provide funds for the missile program."

THE STORY Ward Sebastian is aware that these are troubled times. The Modocs are on the warpath and soldiers are in Yreka to quell them. He has to go to see Anne Biglow who cannot make up her mind to marry him.

CHAPTER IX

The hallway led into a fairly spacious parlor, and here a white hearth was filled with the ruddy welcome of rippling flames. At the far end of the room a door led into a small study, where the glow of a man's voice sounded. "Dad and Harley Ritter are going over some sort of law brief," Anne Biglow explained. "Come say hello." As a man, Milo Biglow was full of a spare, gray, almost austere dignity. Just now he sat in a big chair before a flat-topped desk, his head back, his eyes half closed, his slender hands steeped, as he listened to Harley Ritter's reading of the law brief. As Sebastian and Anne entered, Ritter broke off and got to his feet. "It's Ward, Dad," Anne said. "Ward Sebastian." "Indeed! Well—well!" Biglow rose from his chair and turned.

"It has been some time, Ward." "Almost two months, sir," Sebastian shook hands, then turned to Ritter. "Harley, how are you?"

"Good enough," answered Ritter. "You might say—lucky. For Mr. Biglow has taken me into his office as a junior partner." He said it with some smugness.

Sebastian eyed him briefly. "So I heard. Congratulations! Ever the busy little bee, eh, Harley?"

There was a cut of sardonic irony in this which brought a quick, slightly frowning glance from Anne Biglow.

Ritter was of average height and inclined to fleshiness. There was a soft, pink, well-fed look about him; a neat man, always clean-shaven and smelling faintly of bay rum. A man made for comfort in a comfortable world.

"How has it been with you, Ward?" Milo Biglow asked.

"The usual, sir. A ranch to keep an eye on, and a lot of pack-trail miles to ride."

"Plus a considerable element of danger, I imagine, what with all this Indian trouble going on. And just what are we going to do with that Kentipons, that Captain Jack and his confounded Modoc followers?"

"By the present look of things, just about exterminate them, I'm afraid, sir."

"Which is the sensible thing to do," put in Harley Ritter. Sebastian regarded him in

Hope's Studio One Hasn't Set a New Trend

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP) — Let us open that the initial offering of Studio One (CBS-TV, Mondays) after it moved from New York to Hollywood is not typical of what is to tently.

"You really mean that, don't you, Harley? You'd condemn those people to death without fair trial or recourse."

Harley Ritter stiffened. "It's the only realistic solution and you know it. America has a destiny to fulfill, and can't afford to let any bunch of savages hinder her march toward it."

Milo Biglow's shoulders straightened and a faint flush crept up his gray cheeks. He spoke with some stiffness, as though his professional integrity had somehow come under fire. "I have every legitimate sympathy for the Indian's unfortunate lot. I believe I've the right to say that no one has championed the rights of all men more sincerely than I."

"Just a minute," said Harley Ritter. "There is some word around town that a Modoc raid of ranches along the east side of Tule Lake massacred a number of whites. What have you to say to that?"

"Simply that it's true," Sebastian answered quietly. "I know, because I was there. I helped bury the victims. It was a grim business, and pretty hard to take, emotionally. Yet, logically reasoned, it must be charged up as one of the costs of war, and when has war ever been anything but a dead and bitter business? The victims of the raid were all male. No woman was harmed in any way."

"Well now," exclaimed Harley Ritter sarcastically, "that was considerate of the noble red man, wasn't it?"

In the light of certain past events, you might even call it so, Ritter. "A long time. And I've heard the story told all to Ben Wright's credit."

"Twenty years ago, scoffed Ritter. "A long time. And I've heard the story told all to Ben Wright's credit."

"So have I, Sebastian retorted. "But there's no doubt that Mister Ben Wright and his crowd did a most thorough job of cold-blooded murder that day."

"Twenty years ago, repeated Harley Ritter. "All you have to go on is hearsay. You weren't there, to see."

"Nor, pointed out Sebastian curtly, "were you. It happens, however, that I have seen some evidence of white savagery. At Horse Creek, and at Desolation Flat. There wasn't a single young and able-bodied warrior at Desolation Flat; just squaws and children and old men. So, when Provo, Holt and Jake Ruby and others of their stripe finished there, they certainly left behind the white man's curse."

There was a combative glint in Sebastian's eyes, and the color in Ritter's well-barbered cheeks again grown deeper. Milo Biglow lifted a protesting hand.

"Enough! Both of you! You're on an issue which only the historians may find answer to. I suggest you leave it to them."

"So do I!" declared Anne. "Ward, you come along with me! She tugged at his arm. (To Be Continued) become of this fine weekly dramatic program. If it is, live television drama is dying a painful death indeed.

"Brotherhood of the Bell," the first West Coast offering, was corn fresh from the melodrama popper. Adapted from a David Karp novel of some substance, it emerged as a totally insubstantial bit about some global gangsters of 1976.

The stars assembled apparently did their respective best with the material provided. But if "drama" presumes to be a moving experience that casts some insight into human problems and relationships, then "Brotherhood of the Bell" was merely melodrama.

It was a great disappointment coming after a Studio One fall season in New York which was distinguished by some excellent dramatic offerings. It tempts those who believe in the entertainment value and artistic integrity of first-rate live TV drama to don sackcloth and ashes and chant a funeral dirge.

Will Studio One follow the decline that has characterized those two other live Hollywood-produced CBS-TV weekly drama programs, Playhouse 90 and Climax this season? Climax has forthrightly settled for melodrama. Playhouse 90 which had an excellent season last year and has presented a few good dramas this season, is wavering toward mediocrity.

It's an oversimplification to argue the fate of television drama on the basis of geography and the general West Coast emphasis on "big name" stars to the frequent

DOROTHY DIX

Man Could Be Good Catch But He's Tied to Family

Dear Dorothy Dix: I met a wonderful fellow, through a correspondence club, last year.

He is the same age as I (38), dependable, thrifty, considerate of others, humorous and doesn't drink. He knows I love him but hasn't said he loves me, so I have taken it for granted that he does. He's good to me and my family in many ways. Naturally, I've been expecting a proposal, but suddenly I discovered that he hasn't told his mother a thing about me—and he's the kind of man who wouldn't make a serious move without discussing it with her. I might add that his parents live in quite an isolated area, so Dan comes to the city to work, and lives with a sister.

Do you suppose he could be afraid to tell his mother? Or that he's ashamed of the way we meet? I'm sure we'll never be married unless she approves of me, and I'd like to meet her. Last month he attended his sister's wedding, and I wasn't even invited. I don't feel like wasting any more time after all the years of slipping away. How can I straighten this out? CAMILLE

Dear Camille: It's you, Camille, rather than Dan who is at fault here. You made a correspondence club acquaintance, whom you immediately turned into a matrimonial prospect without as far as I can see, a shred of material. Just because Dan is pleasant, an affable companion, a humorous soul, is absolutely no grounds for thinking of him as a husband. Wait for that all-essential proposal before you shop for a wedding gown.

Dan's mother should be made aware of any serious friendship between you. Certainly there is no stigma attached to the means through which you met—in fact, it would be considered quite romantic with many people. If Dan is matrimonially intentioned, he'll take you to meet his mother, tell her all about your meeting and ask her blessing.

To me, he sounds like a confirmed bachelor whose family ties ties of matrimony. Sorry to be so would always be stronger than the discouraging, but that's the way the ball bounces.

Dear Dorothy Dix: Could I give my steady girl friend of a month a gift for Valentine's Day, and if so what? TROUBLED BOY

Dear T. B.: The girl would play a rascal if you didn't. Flowers are ideal, books or records run a close second. Candy also is all right. But above all, give her a nice card. With gals, it's the sentiment that counts.

Dear Dorothy Dix: Our prom is coming up very soon. We have to ask boys, and are wondering if it is proper to invite boys we haven't dated before. Our parents tell us to ask the boys we want, but we feel it isn't correct.

CONFUSED TEEN-AGERS
Dear C. T.: Your parents are right. Any boy should be flattered at receiving invitations from such nice girls.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I've been going with a young man who says he loves me. However, he never calls when he says he will, never keeps dates on time (if he comes at all). I've given up several evenings waiting for him to call and am now convinced I'm being foolish. Can he be this undependable and still love me? CARRIE

Dear Carrie: He can, but I wouldn't let him get away with it. If you insist on a reasonable amount of punctuality from him, he'll get over his colossal lack of consideration.

There were 4,200,000 births in the United States in 1950, as compared with 2,560,000 in 1940.

Missouri, 1950, $708,801,000, new estimate $1,037,742,000.

'Human Log' Who Helped Others, Dies

HATTIAN, N.S. (AP)—Walter Callow, the blind, legless, paralyzed "human log" who spent years helping others, died last night in a veterans hospital here.

For more than 20 of his 62 years Callow lay almost motionless in his hospital bed, able only to hear and speak.

But from his bed he raised money to send more than three million cigarettes to servicemen overseas. He designed and raised money for a fleet of wheelchair buses that took cripples and shut-ins on outings he could not make himself.

A plane accident in 1917 when he was a Royal Canadian Flying Corps mechanic hospitalized Callow for a year, and in 1930 the injury resulted in paralysis so he could not walk. He entered Camp Hill Hospital in 1937 and never left it.

The paralysis spread to his arms and legs and his eyesight failed. Two years ago doctors amputated his legs. Two months ago he became ill with influenza and bronchopneumonia.

Callow started his cigarette fund during World War II by raffling off his radio, then gave up smoking himself and made appeals to raise more money.

publican Leader Knowland of California said, "The Senate Appropriations Committee will be able to give the cigarette fund as soon as the House acts."

Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas said, "There is no question but that Congress will promptly and sympathetically consider the President's request and act on it."

Woman Who Laid Lenin Low Dies

MOSCOW (AP)—The death was reported in Moscow today of Fene Kaplan, a Russian woman counterrevolutionary of 40 years ago.

Separate advices from Moscow said this was the woman who seriously wounded Soviet Premier Nikolai Lenin on Aug. 30, 1918 in an assassination attempt. Lenin recovered from the wounds. He died Jan. 21, 1924, after suffering two strokes.

The woman was understood to have died in prison.

Lenin's assassin was identified as "Dora" Kaplan, a 30-year-old medical student.

On Oct. 10, 1933, an Austrian war prisoner—Alexander Riss of Graz—told authorities on his return from imprisonment in Russia that the woman who shot Lenin in 1918 had died in Moscow's Butyrki Prison in 1947. Riss identified her as Fene Kaplan, "liberty."

Bill Would Allow Treatment for Boy

HAZARD (AP)—has introduced a bill to provide treatment at a Veterans Administration hospital for an Arkansas boy critically wounded by his mother.

Hays' measure would allow the federally paid treatment for William Patrick O'Brien, 14, of North Little Rock, who has been in a coma since he was shot in the head last June.

The boy's mother killed his two younger brothers and then committed suicide. The father of the wounded boy, Capt. William B. O'Brien, was killed in World War II.

A special act of Congress is required to admit the youth to a veterans' hospital. Hays said he needs constant attention and may never recover.

He said that in the last years of her life she had kept the prison

U. S. Needn't Be Afraid — Rockefeller

NEW YORK (AP) — Nelson A. Rockefeller said Americans have "no need to be afraid" of the reports made public in the first of the reports sponsored by the Rockefeller Foundation.

The non-governmental survey said an overhaul of the Defense Department and a boost in defense spending is necessary to halt a rapidly deteriorating U.S. position in the military race with the Soviet Union.

"This country has the capacity to do it," Rockefeller said in an interview on the NBC-TV "Today" program. He headed the 21-man panel which made the study.

As for future reports to be issued, Rockefeller said they will show "lots of hope and excitement for the future." He did not amplify.

He said findings presented in the first report would stand on their own merit and there would be no effort to reply to critics.

SHAPE OF THINGS TO COME—This photograph of a model of the Hunter College Library, now under construction at the school's Bronx, N. Y., campus, shows the dramatic "hyperbolic paraboloid" shape that will comprise the building's roof. Designed by Marcel Breuer, the 120x180-foot, 230,000-volume library will be the first educational building in this country to feature the radical construction concept upon its completion in 1959. The unique roof, made of concrete shells, will require only six columns for support, allowing maximum floor space and flexibility of layout. Connected to the library will be a companion classroom-administration building that will have 30 classrooms and an inner courtyard. Cost of both buildings is estimated at $3,300,000.

Russians Told of Flight Into Space

WASHINGTON (AP) — Russians were told by their home radio Sunday "there is no actual flight by a man in a cosmic ship today."

The Moscow domestic broadcast monitored in the West, came one day ahead of an unofficial report in the Soviet capital that a manned rocket had soared 100 miles and the passenger had parachuted to earth.

The Sunday broadcast was a fictional account of the launching of a manned satellite into orbit, and a radio conversation between the passenger and a ground station.

The narrator called it "imaginary" and predicted that "when such a thing happens 'it will be a Soviet man' aboard."

Testifies Sergeant 'Knocked Heads'

YOKOSUKA, Japan (AP) — A 10-year-old sailor testified today that Marine Sgt. Robert J. Barbuti, Schenectady, N.Y., knocked his and another brig prisoner's heads together to the rhythm of a Mario Lanza record.

"He kept it up until the place was over," Gordon L. Bell, Flint, Mich., told an eight-man general court-martial today. Barbuti on 29 counts of cruelty to prisoners in the brig at the U.S. Navy base at Sasebo, Japan. Barbuti, who was assistant warden at the brig, has pleaded innocent.

Bell said he didn't remember the title of the record.

He was one of seven former brig prisoners who testified on the second day of the trial, which continues tomorrow. Other witnesses said the 23-year-old sergeant kicked at a prisoner's face, stamped on one man's bare toes and punched prisoners in the stomach.

Rayburn Sees Session of Controversy

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.) told a news conference today he expects a very heavy session and one of considerable controversy.

"The people in general are pretty disturbed, and I might say unhappy, about things that are happening in the world," he said. "They were greatly humiliated when Russia got the jump on us in outer space."

Rayburn banged his gavel in the House promptly at noon to launch the session. About 300 members were in the Senate.

In the Senate, Vice President Nixon similarly put that chamber into session on the dot of time.

After 10 minutes, Nixon's gavel banged again for a recess until noon Thursday. The brief interval was given chiefly to a roll call, conducted amid much stirring on the floor where senators were welcomed to each other.

Ninety senators answered the roll call. Absent were GOP Sens. Bridges of New Hampshire, Morton of Kentucky, and Martin of Pennsylvania, all reported sick; Watkins of Utah, who had business in his home state, and Case of New Jersey who was delayed in getting back from a trip to South America.

On the Democratic side, Sen. Kerr of Oklahoma was absent. He had a speaking engagement.

Ike's Reply to Bulganin Set

WASHINGTON (AP) — A draft of President Eisenhower's proposed reply to Soviet Premier Bulganin's December letter has been sent to Paris for coordination with Atlantic Pact governments.

The State Department said the Eisenhower-approved version was cabled yesterday to Ambassador Randolph Burgess, American representative at the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Council.

The American answer is reported to brush aside the idea of any immediate East-West nonaggression pact.

Vertebrae Snap in Fall of 30 Feet

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — William Hall, 57, fell 30 feet inside the dome of a tall building yesterday and lay helpless for some two hours at the 27th floor before he was rescued in a tricky operation.

Hall's plight was discovered when fellow employees missed him. He was hoisted in a canvas stretcher and lowered to the 26th floor and a waiting elevator. At a hospital, doctors found he suffered three fractured vertebrae.

Hall is chief porter at the Industrial Bank Building where he fell.

Tigers Assign Hadley to K. C.

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Tigers today assigned first baseman Kent Hadley to the Kansas City Athletics as part of their 13-player trade.

The Tigers owe the As one more player to complete the transaction.

The 23-year-old Hadley is a left-handed hitting first baseman who batted .279 at Augusta last season. He was an All-America baseball player at Southern California and has been regarded as one of the best first base prospects in the

Unemployment Benefits Set State Record

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A record $9,566,967 in unemployment benefits was paid in Arkansas during 1957 although the number of jobless persons was lower than the state's 1949 peak.

The previous high in payments was $9,201,017 in 1954.

J. L. Bland, administrator of the Employment Security Division, said yesterday that the 1957 figure was about $365,000 above that of 1956.

He attributed the record payment to increased benefits and extension of the period in which they can be collected. In 1954 the maximum weekly benefit was $22 for 16 weeks but the next year it was boosted to $26 for 16 weeks.

Unemployment payments went to 46,649 jobless persons in 1957 compared to 49,044 in the top year of 1949.

Bland said the 1957 unemployment picture was darkened by a business slump last fall. But he added that new industries coming into Arkansas kept the situation from becoming worse.

He said heavy rains had a detrimental effect on employment in 1957, causing slowdowns in building projects and farm production which later forced layoffs in some manufacturing, trade and service industries.

Jobless benefit payments in Arkansas are made by employers under a percentage formula based on their payrolls.

In the November deal, the Tigers received Gus Zernial, Lou Skizas, Tom Morgan, Billy Martin, Tim Thompson and Maurice McDermott. The Tigers shipped Frank House, Bill Tuttle, Jim Small, Duke Maas and John Tsitouris to Kansas City and announced they would send two minor league players along later to complete the deal.

HAM SANDWICH—All higgledy-piggledy is this passel of porkers at the market in Guildford, England, with the result that Wrong-way Wilbur, in the middle, is the victim of a squeeze play. The little piggy, who's going nowhere, got "hammed in" when somebody rang the dinner bell while its back was turned.

WHAT'S THIS?—Apparently unaware of the old cat and mouse theory, Prince Mickey, a Russian Blue shorthair cat, and Mousey, a mouse, play together in New York. Both owned by Mrs. Evelyn Adams, they were "caught" in this new cat and mouse game during a preview of the 41st Annual Empire Cat Show.

SNOW ROADS—The residents of Ubaye Valley in the French Alps will have a white Christmas and from the looks of things a white New Year's, too. Maybe they won't need these road signs until next spring. A 48-hour snowfall dumped three feet of snow in the area, with drifts reaching as high as 15 feet, isolating several villages. Only the tops of the signs stick up from the deep cover at the crossroads in Barcelonnette.

VANISHING VILLAGE—After waging a 10-year battle against a slow but inexorable landslide, the town of Musio, near Lake Garda, Italy, appears doomed. There remains only a tiny cluster of buildings which have not yet crumbled. Heavy rains in 1957 aggravated the slide and the town is now nearly completely evacuated. The church at right, its foundation undermined, is expected to be the next building to fall to ruins, like those in the foreground.

Probers Call Gavin About Missile

WASHINGTON AP — Lt. Gen. James M. Gavin was called today to testify at a Senate hearing on missile development.

In advance of the hearing, two senators — Stennis (D-Miss) and Goldwater (R-Ariz) — urged the general to reconsider. Several other members of Congress have made similar statements.

Secretary of the Army Brucker said Gavin had been offered two ways in which he could reach four-star rank as an inducement to remain in service.

The 50-year-old general is chief of Air Research and Development, which includes the Army missile program. He disclosed his retirement plans last weekend, and indicated his decision was partly a protest against what he called "the Pentagon system."

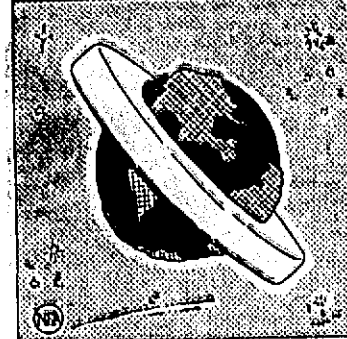

Yesterday, however, he told newsmen there is a 50-50 chance he would remain in service. Last month, he proposed a reorganization of the Joint Chiefs of Staff system, and there were hints these views resulted in pressures which led him to request retirement. Gavin has given other reasons for his move.

Gavin was leadoff witness before the Senate Preparedness subcommittee, which is probing into the nation's missile-satellite programs.

Stennis, vice chairman of the subcommittee, said, "Gen. Gavin is one of the bright, younger fellows we need most to keep in the service."

About 650 of the passenger trains operated by railroads of the United States are known by name.

News Briefs

LITTLE ROCK AP — A report by the federal Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Unit here showed that agents seized 119 illegal stills in Arkansas during 1957, about the same as the 1956 figure. Agents also confiscated 1,527 gallons of illegal spirits, 39,780 gallons of mash and made 172 arrests last year.

CAMDEN, Ark. AP — Capt. R. E. Johnson, commander of the Naval Ammunition Depot here, will receive a presidential citation for the depot's work in finding jobs for the physically handicapped. Gov. Orval Faubus will present the citation in a ceremony at his office in Little Rock Friday.

LITTLE ROCK AP — The Arkansas Public Service Commission has received a request by the Carroll Electric Co-operative and Arkansas Power & Light Co. to exchange territory in Carroll County. A hearing is set for Jan. 14.

VIENNA AP — The Communist propaganda network today labeled the new American Congress "the arms race Congress" and made "fresh demands" for the ouster of Secretary of State Dulles.

The Red organs contrasted the American efforts to catch up with the Russians in missile development with splash display of Moscow's announcement of a further 300,000-man cut in Soviet armed forces.

When you descend on the faults of others, consider whether you are not guilty of the same. To gain knowledge of ourselves, the best way is to convert the imperfections of others into a mirror for discovering our own. Selected.

Calendar of Events

The Hope Civic Improvement Association will meet at Hicks Funeral Home at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

The Junior Choir of BeBee Memorial Church will hold its rehearsal Thursday evening, Jan. 9 at 6 o'clock. All members are asked to be present.

While the Jayhawks, second in the West tonight in this week's Associated Press poll, were looking for a third-straight victory over Oklahoma State, the Sooners were looking for a fourth-straight victory over Texas Tech.

Tommy Kearns scored 23 points in leading Frank McGuire's outfit to its 10th victory.

Upstart Texas Tech, the "baby of the Southwest Conference, rolled to an 83-70 victory over Texas Christian, the favorite for the title.

Rice, which had been the choice before the season started, whipped defending champion Southern Methodist 78-74, and Texas A&M vanquished Texas 71-50 in other loop engagements.

Undeclared St. John's of Brooklyn won its eighth game, an 87-84 decision over Rhode Island, and Richmond came from behind in the final minutes to turn back the Citadel 54-50 in a Southern Conference game.

Miss Adell White, Mrs. Florina Lawson and sons, Jerrel and Ronald, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Charles and the James Reed family were dinner guests in the home of Mrs. Letha Lawson.

Mrs. Roxie Hadley of 720 Hickory Street was the weekend guest of Mrs. Jessie Mae Jones and her mother, Mrs. Polly Holden of Rt. 1 Hope.

Emmet, Willisville to Play Tonight

Emmet and Willisville basketball teams will play tonight in the Emmet Gym. Three games will be played with the Junior girls game slated to start at 6:30 p.m.

These games were originally scheduled to be played Friday night, but have been moved up because of Willisville's entering the Henderson tournament.

Emmet Takes Two From Guernsey

Coach Malcolm Burnette's Emmet engers won 2 and lost 1 last night as they entertained Coach Theo James' Guernsey basketballers.

With Paula Edwards sacking 17 points, Suzanne Jones 4 and Janice Matthews 4, Emmet Junior girls captured a 25-16 win. Barbara Adams hit for 9, Melba Bristow 4 and Joan Jones 3 for Guernsey.

Emmet Senior girls looped a 55-42 victory with Junitta Dougan getting 28, Barbara Faulkner 20 and Lorraine Theiss 7. Nina Adams was high for the losers with 17. Linda Bristow hit 15 and Jeanette Daugherty 10. Guernsey led 19-11 and 30-23 the first two periods, but Emmet piled in 22 points the third period and 10 the final quarter as they held the visitors to 7 and 5 points.

Guernsey Senior boys grabbed a 38-33 win with William Foster getting 19, Taylor D and Ferguson 7. Larry Faulkner was high for the losers with 13, Tillman Coffee got 8 and James Cummings and Gary Coffee 4 each. Guernsey led 19-6, 29-14 and 32-26 at the quarters.

Officials were Charles Gough and Louis Singleton, timer was Joe Weeks and scorekeepers Wrenetta Cleaver and Peggy Cummings.

Stilt Absent Again, Kansas Is Defeated

By ED CORRIGAN
The Associated Press

While Kansas may not be a one-man team, the Jayhawks would be in a sad way if they had to go through the season without Will (The Stilt) Chamberlain.

The gangling sophomore has missed Kansas last two games because of an infection. Until he was taken ill, the Jayhawks had a 10-0 record. Last Thursday, Chamberlain was in the hospital and Oklahoma State beat Kansas 52-50.

Last night, the seven-foot All-American still was ailing, and Oklahoma pulled out a 64-62 decision over Kansas in a Big Eight game in Norman.

With just six seconds remaining, Oklahoma's Gene Hudson hit with a set shot and it was all over. Ron Loneski had 27 points for Kansas.

Crosby Meet May Get Clear Weather

By JACK STEVENSON
PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Clear weather, sometimes a stranger at Bing Crosby's golfing clambake, was expected to put in a full appearance this weekend as the crooner stages his greatest sports show.

The weatherman didn't come right out and say definitely and positively it would be sunny and bright from Thursday through Sunday for the $50,000 tournament, but he reported "a good chance the weather will be good."

Since the last few years have seen wind and rain through at least portions of the clambake, the weatherman's words were welcome.

The 120 professionals and 120 amateurs starting out in this 72-hole tournament use today for practice rounds. Tomorrow play starts tomorrow with half the field at Cypress Point and the other half at the Monterey Peninsula Country Club.

The switch starts on Friday and then the low 50s and 60s and the low 40s and 50s will move to Pebble Beach for the Saturday and Sunday rounds.

When words are pronounced the same, but differ in spelling and meaning they are called homonyms.

Bobcats Roll Up No. 10 in Downing Arkadelphia

Coach Don Sevier's Hope Bobcats won their 10th victory of the season last night in Jones Field House as they ousted the Arkadelphia Badgers 50 to 34.

The Cats led 11-7, 30-19 and 43-24 at the quarters. Dave Watkins pumped in 16 for high scorer, Jerry Franks got 8, Tommy Polk and Larry Bruce hit 6 apiece, Jimmy May and Bill Hair got 4 each and John Graves 2. Thurman and Formby saw action but did not get in the scoring column.

The Bobcats hit 20 field goals, 10 of 19 free tosses and committed 17 fouls. Arkadelphia made 11 from the field, 12 of 23 charity tosses and fouled 11 times. Holt made 13 and Ingram and Ray grabbed 6 each, for the Badgers.

Coach John Pierce's Juniors rolled to a 31-22 triumph with Robinson getting 14, Walters 9, Duke 4, Moore 3, and 2 each for Arnette and Calhoun. Headley scored 8, Harris 7, Winters 4 and Thomas 3 for the Junior Badgers.

The Bobkittens hit 12 FG, 7 of 11 FT and fouled 9 times. The losers hit 8 FG, 8 of 10 FT and fouled 7 times. Hope led 19-8 at the half and 28-16 at the third period.

Officials were Roberts and Sedgass, timer was Leon Turpin, Bill Lawrence on the scoreboard and score keepers Judy Robins and Judy Wright.

Brown Heads Pro Football All-Star Crew

By JOE REICHLER
NEW YORK (AP) — Jimmy Brown, Cleveland's bulldozing fullback, swept the boards in the annual Associated Press poll today, gaining unanimous honors as the play-back and rookie of the year besides getting the most votes on the AP All-Pro team.

The 220-pound musclemann was the only member of the Browns to earn a place on the two-platoon team. San Francisco's tight end, Fred Sliney, was named to the backfield, Green Bay and the champion Detroit Lions earned three places each.

Brown was named on all 36 ballots of the sports writers covering the NFL campaign. He received 34 votes for the fullback spot and two for left halfback.

Gino Marchetti of Baltimore attracted the second highest total of votes, 35, for an end position on the defensive team. Detroit's great linebacker Joe Schmidt was next with 34 votes.

He was followed by offensive end Billy Wilson of San Francisco, 33, and Washington's defensive end, Gee Brito, 31.

Eleven players, led by Schmidt and Brito, were repeaters from the 1956 All-Pro team. They included tackle Lou Creekmur and halfback Jack Christensen, Detroit; tackle Roosevelt Brown and halfback Frank Gifford, New York; tackle Art Donovan, Baltimore; middle guard Bill George, Chicago Bears; halfback Ollie Matson, Chicago Cardinals; and Billy Howton, Green Bay, and guard Dick Stanfel, Washington.

Brown, who leaped from All-American game at Syracuse University to a regular fullback berth with the Browns in one year, piled up 3 of the 36 votes to win left halfback.

Y. A. Tittle, San Francisco's veteran quarterback, was second to Brown in the best back and kicker in scoring, totaling 10 touchdowns for 60 points.

Girl Bludgeoned to Death in Louisville

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A 14-year-old girl was found bludgeoned to death today in a wooded spot in the same general area where the frozen body of a 42-year-old woman was found only yesterday.

The girl, Mildred Jean Simpson, was identified by her mother who said the girl left her home last night to go to a nearby drugstore.

Deputy Coroner Harry Elstone reported the girl's head was crushed and said she died about 4:30 a.m. Her body was found along a private road in a wooded area three hours later.

Mrs. Simpson said the girl had gone to the drugstore about 9 p.m.

The body of Mrs. Carmelita Mitchell, widow of a former Louisville policeman, was found in a cornfield near Carrie Gaubert Cox Park yesterday. She had been missing about a week and Chief Deputy Coroner William Rasmeyer said today she died of exposure after being knocked unconscious.

About 10 billion persons attend motion picture theaters throughout the world each year.

Took 'Naughty' Role in 'Les Girls' to Win Film Stardom for Taina Elg

Hollywood, for the past several decades the glamor capital of the world, has for some time been the magnet that has drawn to its film stages beautiful and glamorous women from the far corners of the globe.

Some, like Sweden's Garbo, Germany's Dietrich and Mexico's Del Rio, have become immortal in the world of motion pictures. Others, like Russia's Anna Sten, Hungary's Ilona Massey and Austria's Louise Rainer, sailed across the sea to find an equally glittering but more fleeting fame.

Today, the well worn glory path is still being traveled by some of the most exciting women in the world—Lollobrigida and Loren from Italy, Kay Kendall and Joan Collins from England, Maria Schell from Switzerland, Dany Wynter from South Africa and dozens of others.

The very latest foreign import to reach the top and one who, by virtue of talent as well as beauty, appears destined to remain there, is a young girl from Finland with the unlikely but real name of Taina (pronounced Tyna) Elg.

is a young girl from Finland with the unlikely but real name of Taina (pronounced Tyna) Elg.

A shapely, green-eyed ash blonde who has danced in most of the capitals of Europe with ballet troupes, Miss Elg recently was elevated to stardom by M-G-M following her performance in one of the little roles of Sol C. Siegel's "Les Girls."

Under contract to M-G-M for three years, this pert miss who, according to those who know her, has the brains to match her beauty, didn't lose patience during the waiting period.

"I came with the idea of being patient," she says. "Long before I ever dreamed I might go to Hollywood myself, I had read about the experiences of Greer Garson, Myrna Loy, Ava Gardner and many others who had to wait months and sometimes years before they had a real opportunity to prove themselves."

But Taina Elg wasn't idle during the three years. She perfected her English, studied drama and continued to practice dancing. She also gained experience by acting small roles in three films ("The Prodigal," "Diane" and "Gaby").

Producer Sol Siegel, who had considered Lollobrigida for the role in "Les Girls," decided in favor of the Finnish beauty after he had seen a test she had made for another film. He felt she was perfect for the part of the show girl pal of Mitz Gaynor and Kay Kendall, and the girl who causes their impresario, Gene Kelly, a lot of trouble.

The assignment climaxed seven

Oil Company Swindle Disclosed

PONCA CITY, Okla. (AP)—County sheriff's officers disclosed yesterday that an Arkansas City, Kan., oil company was swindled all the way on a pair of bogus checks.

After a complaint by the Boyett Oil Co. about the checks, totaling $96, officers found that not only did they bear the name of M. B. Shriver, former mayor of Ponca City who died in 1949, but they also were written on the Farmers State Bank of Ponca City, out of business for the last 20 years.

years of training that began when Taina Elg first left her home in Helsinki to study with the Sadler's Wells Ballet Company (now called the Royal Ballet) in London.

It was actor Mel Ferrer who was instrumental in helping Taina get her start in films. She had met him in Paris and he, in turn, introduced her to Producer Edwin Knopf who was traveling in Europe. The latter, impressed with Taina's beauty and charm, cabled M-G-M and obtained permission for a screen test. Ferrer himself directed the test. It resulted in a long-term contract and following a brief trip home to Helsinki Taina Elg was Hollywood bound.

NEW JOB?—Adm. Arthur W. Radford, former chairman of the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff, may soon be named to a high diplomatic post. Such is speculation in Tokyo, which further has it that Radford might be named as ambassador to the Philippines if the present envoy, Charles E. Bohlen, decides to retire.

Dredge With 23 Men Aboard Sinks

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—A new one and a half million dollar shell dredge sank in Galveston Bay today with a reported 23 men aboard. Coast Guard officials said they believe there were some drownings.

Unofficial reports from the area said all but three of the men had been rescued.

Coast guard vessels from Galveston and Houston were enroute to the scene at noon.

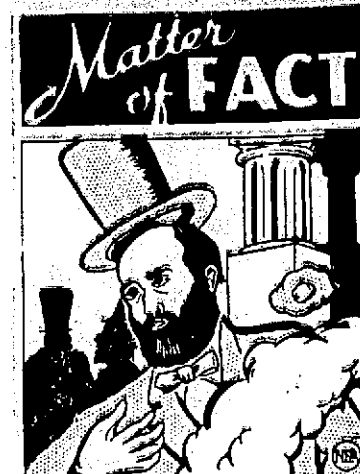

The dredge was the H. A. Sawyer, placed into service about two weeks ago by Parker Bros., a Houston firm.

No Report From Russia on Rocket

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department said today its embassy in Moscow filed no reports at all on unconfirmed stories that Russia has fired a manned rocket 186 miles into space.

The White House said it is not known there if the story is true or not.

The United States has 969 accredited universities and colleges.

The assassination of President James A. Garfield in 1881 by a disappointed government job seeker brought public demands for reforms in the way in which federal jobs were filled. These demands led to the passage by Congress of the Civil Service Act of 1883. This law began the separation of federal civil service from party politics, and it was the cornerstone for the present federal merit system.
